The Aging and Disability Resource Center of Central Wisconsin (ADRC-CW) is grateful to the Girls Scouts of Northwestern Great Lakes (GSNWGL) and Peyton’s Promise for providing Senior Snow Day Meals to Marathon County meals on wheels customers.

Scouts from GSNWGL Troop 7367 worked with Peyton’s Promise to organize targeted food drives, collect and sort donated foods, package and deliver meals to ADRC-CW meals on wheels customers in Marathon County. The scouts developed this program in response to the many canceled meals on wheels deliveries due to harsh weather during the winter of 2018/2019.

The Scouts worked with the Ronda James, ADRC-CW Nutrition Program Director and Karen Abadeer, Nutrition Program Coordinator to ensure the Senior Snow Day Meals would meet nutritional needs of the senior nutrition program. The scouts then worked with Peyton’s Promise to create a partnership that can support Senior Snow Day Meals through targeted food drives.

"We are honored by the generosity to provide Senior Snow Day Meals for our homebound older adult customers. These meals provided by Girl Scout Troop 7367 and Peyton's Promise are a gift to Marathon County meals on wheels customers who are now prepared with food for winter weather service closure." ~ Ronda James

“Mom enjoyed the stew and the idea that our community looks out for people. Kudos to Girl Scout Troop 7367, the ADRC, and Peyton’s Promise.” ~ Family member of meals on wheels participant

Nearly 200 Senior Snow Day Meals were delivered throughout Marathon County Saturday, December 14, 2019.
